Utah's Shawna Cuan Presented 2016 ESC Public Sector Leadership Award

During the closing ceremonies of the 2016 ESC Market Transformation Conference in Louisville, Shawna Cuan of the Utah ESC Chapter, was awarded the 2016 ESC Public Sector Leadership Award.

The ESC Chapter in Utah was reinstated at a meeting of steering committee members on February 17, 2016. At that meeting Shawna Cuan was unanimously voted in as public co-chair of the Utah ESC Chapter, and since that time has provided the leadership that led to the group's initial meeting, the development of a Chapter Annual Plan, launch of an outreach committee and an outreach action plan, worked with the Utah Energy Office to develop an RFP for third-party reviewers, and represented the Chapter at the (RE) Join Us: We need your involvement. If you are a former Utah Chapter member, then you know that the ESC provides a unique forum in which all stakeholders can work together to address and overcome any barriers which are limiting the effective use of ESPC. So, if you are still involved in energy savings performance contracting programs, products or services, then coming back to the Energy Services Coalition may be right for you. Please consider renewing your membership. I hope you will be able to (re) join us!

What Success Looks Like: Utah-Style

September 4, 2016 * City of Orem will save an estimated $11.4 million in energy and operational cost savings and capital cost avoidance over 15 years as a result of its new GESPC. Energy efficiency measures include upgrading the city's 5,182 streetlights with LED bulbs, resulting in a projected annual savings of $181,000. The project scope also included energy retrofits improvements at the city center, public library, public safety building, senior center, recreation center, and citywide fire stations.

SAVE THE DATE
